

You Can Choose To Be Rich Or Not By Patric Chan

Sometimes, I don't get it about some people's attitudes.

Before I share this with you, allow me to tell you a story related to it.

= = = = =

John always goes jogging in the morning around his neighborhood.

As usual, he puts on his jogging shoes and off he goes. But this time, he encountered something weird ...

As he was jogging past Mr. Smith's house, he heard Mr. Smith's dog howling and crying in front of the house's porch. So, he moved closer to the dog because he was curious why it was crying early in the morning when there's no one about!

Still mystified, he knocked on Mr. Smith's door.

Mr. Smith opened the door and they greeted each other.

John went ahead and asked Mr. Smith,

"Why is your dog crying and howling this morning? This is very unusual for it to do that."

Mr. Smith answered,

"Oh... that silly dog. It accidentally sat on a nail this morning and it has been crying ever since."

John was confused so he continued,

"So why doesn't it just stand up and sit somewhere else?"

Mr. Smith guessed,

"Well, I think maybe the pain of the nail poking it is not painful enough to make it move."

Now, I didn't just create this story. I heard of it somewhere else but I can't remember the author. Did you get the lesson from it?

Look carefully at yourself!

Are you sitting on a 'nail' but it's not painful enough so you keep on whining and complaining especially about being financially poor?

If you're not, that's GREAT.

But there are just so many people who keep on complaining about their financial situation.

I mean, will complaining ever help?

Sadly, nope.

Get off the 'nail' and take action to change your financial life if you're not happy with it!

When I say that, I can hear people start saying that they're 'stuck' or don't know how to start. Honestly, I think that's just crap.

I believe you can be financially richer than where you are now. Seriously. If you're not, it's just because of your lack of wealth education and some motivation to take action. Wouldn't you agree?

One of the ways to get started is to invest in The Infinite Wealth Trilogy. If you read completely through this 600-page ebook and take action based on what you have learned, it's IMPOSSIBLE that you don't see your life getting richer. On top of that, we're giving away 8 hours + of recorded audio tele-coaching worth $497 until end of August 2005!

What else can you ask for?

I want to share more personal stuff with you. Look at me. Who am I?

I'm just an 'ordinary' 25-year old but I have somehow achieved some extraordinary results in my life.

I started just like YOU.

I didn't have anything when I got started except my mindset and an unshakable attitude to be financially rich. That's all. If I need to obtain something, I'll find a way to get there – I don't just sit around complaining why I can't get there.

One of the men that has impacted my life is Anthony Robbins. In case you don't know, Tony Robbins' seminars are not cheap. But because I knew I needed it, I managed to find a way to get a ticket to his seminar.

No, I didn't beg for money, use sympathy to ask for a free ticket, rob a bank and so on. I EARNED IT. I started working a part time job and tried to increase my sales commission from the company I worked with at that time.

But still, I didn't have sufficient money to pay for the ticket. During that time, I had asked for installment payments and luckily, my request was accepted. But guess what?

Somehow, by end of the first month, I managed to make enough money to pay for the whole program just because I change my mindset, understood how to attract money and to take action towards achieving that.

The rest is history and here I am, helping thousands of people to be successful today. I've authored books, spoken at seminars, consulted clients and etc.

What's the lesson here?

No, it's not that I'm smart. The lesson is, THINK DIFFERENTLY.

Think how you can afford it, NOT how 'I can't afford it'.

If you think that I'm trying to sell you my course, The Infinite Wealth Trilogy, the answer is YES and NO.

NO because neither Paul Counsel's (The author of The Infinite Wealth Trilogy) nor my financial lives will change whether you order or you pass it up.

Why?

Because we are making money elsewhere. We both have several other businesses and income streams.

YES, I'm trying to 'sell' this course to you because I know and believe that this course will help you if you absorb it and act on it to give yourself a real chance to be richer.

This is NOT about Paul or I. It's about YOU, YOU and YOU.

Let me tell you what money can do for you and other people. Now, if you happen to speak with Paul personally one day, you'll know he is a down-to-Earth humble guy. He's not the type of person that will go around shouting to the public, telling them what he has achieved.

That's why he didn't tell you what I'm about to tell you now.

Here's what I found out when I was in his house in Perth ...

He got a corkboard on which he has pinned photos of Indian children and tons of letters from them. So I asked him, what it was all about?

And you know what?

He has helped to fund a school somewhere in India so that many children can have education. Now, when I write this, I get goose bumps. If you ever consider helping someone else financially in your life or contributing to a society, you have got to be financially rich first. You have got to get yourself there first in order to touch other people's lives. Your life will be very meaningful when you do that.

Sadly, some people choose to be 'victimized' by themselves!

Weird as it sounds; it feels 'good' to do that so that their excuses can justify their failure.

For instance, someone who wants to start an internet business says he cannot do it because he doesn't know how to set up a webpage.

That's true to a certain degree. But I think it's just an excuse they use to stop themselves from being successful.

If you don't know how to create a webpage, go and learn it! If you still can't, then hire someone to do it. The point is, there are tons of solutions to this tiny challenge. Where there's a will, there's a way.

This is not about being stubborn. It's about being practical and moving towards what you want by taking the correct actions.

So do you see how being a 'victim' helps someone to escape from the responsibility of being successful?

By the way, we explored this topic deeper in the 6-Week Millionaire Coaching Program.

People still continue to be victims because sometimes, self-pity gives them what they want. But do you want to try to achieve your goal by wallowing in self-pity or would you rather do it by being an achiever?

Now, not everyone wants to be a 'victim'. Sometimes, they don't even realize that they are victimized by themselves!

If by reading this letter and you realized that you're 'victimizing' yourself, I've done my job.

Are you ready for the good news?

Here it is ...

You HAVE A CHOICE.

You have the power to choose how you want your life to be. Like Tony Robbins said,

'It's the moment of your decision that shapes the destiny.'

The day I chose to be financially rich and stop giving wimpy excuses to myself, my financial life changed and yours can too.

Choose to be rich now. Educate yourself and actually USE what you've learned. One day, you'll remember this email that sparked you to make the decision to be financially wealthy.

If you haven't read the Infinite Wealth Trilogy yet, I highly recommend that you do so now.

All the best.
